

THE ELIT COLLECTION
BLEND STONE

BLEND STONE PORCELAIN TILES

Venetian Seminato, or Terrazzo flooring, originated in Italy and was masterfully crafted by skilled artisans. This timeless design has been re-imagined for modern tastes, giving rise to the Blend Stone collection – a range of ceramic materials designed to inspire architectural creativity and contemporary design innovation.

The collection includes two concrete and three terrazzo inspired options. Each style is characterised by unique fragment sizes and shapes, emulating traditional craftsmanship with a modern aesthetic.

These designs pay homage to the intricate patterns of traditional Terrazzo while embracing bold graphics, striking contrasts, and vibrant colours. The result is a fresh, innovative approach that pushes the boundaries of creative expression and offers exciting new possibilities.

With its versatile materials and adaptable options, Blend Stone provides endless opportunities for design freedom, from varied background tones to fragment dimensions. Perfect for a wide range of settings, the collection effortlessly combines modern sophistication with timeless elegance.
